Whole Bunch Syrah 2023

92 Points Tim Atkins

Varieties: 100% Syrah

Winemaking: All fruit was hand-picked, lightly crushed, and whole bunch fermented for ten days, pressed and aged in steel tanks (75%) and older barrels (25%) for ten months.

Tasting notes: The nose is complex, showing purple flowers, sour figs, dark chocolate and wet earth. Crushed fruits, including blueberry and black cherry, lead on the palate before black olives, cloves, salted liquorice and cured meats. Powdery tannins, fresh acidity and a density of fruit make this a more serious but no less juicy and smashable vintage.

BOT RIVER - SOUTH AFRICA

Landscape Series - Syrah on Shale 2021

95 points Tim Atkins

Varieties: Syrah on single shale vineyard named Bokkevel. A windy site.

Winemaking: The fruit was hand-picked. 60% whole cluster fermentation. The wine was fermented wild in small, open-top fermenters with extended postfermentation maceration. Aged in 500L barrels for 14 months, with second and third fill French Oak used.

Tasting notes: Depth and intensity on the nose, with blue flowers, blackberries and grilled meat nodding towards Côté Rotie. The palate is plush and concentrated with darker fruit from cassis alongside kalamata olives and black pepper. Vibrant acidity balances the fruit weight for a long, complex finish and augurs well for ageing.

Bardolino DOP 2022

Varieties: Organic Certified Corvina and Rondinella, 190m of elevation.

Winemaking: The two grape varieties, Corvina and Rondinella, are vinified separately. The maceration lasts some 7-8 days and coincides with the fermentation period. MLF in stainless steel.

Tasting notes: Purple-tinged ruby red of medium intensity. Its rich, complex bouquet is the result of a perfect blend of fruity essences such as sweet-sour cherry and blueberry, and spicy nuances of cinnamon and black pepper. The distinctive hallmark of this wine is without a doubt the elegance that one experiences on the palate. Remarkably soft tannins and a lovely balance between a judicious acidity and full, savory flavors, are characteristic of wines of this area. Nicely full bodies, it lingers long on the finish.

Brol Grande Bardolino Classico 2020 17++ points in Jancis Robinson

Varieties: Organic Certified Corvina and Rondinella from a single vineyard Cru called Montebaldo.

Winemaking: The maceration lasts some 7-8 days and coincides with the fermentation period. MLF in stainless steel. The wine rests for 12 months in a concrete tank.

Tasting notes: This vineyard gives the wine a very specific 'greenish taste', very typical of this single vineyard and cru. With some ageing, it starts tasting like strawberries, oregano, and thyme. A medicinal-green undertone - wintergreen lotion and camphor oil. The fruit has the woody tartness and acerbity of hawthorn berries, and yet, tucked in there is a kiss of woodland-strawberry sweetness and charm.

NAVARRA, SPAIN

Pacharán Classic (700ml, 28% vol.)

Pacharán, a popular sloe-flavored liqueur in Navarre and the Basque Country, is created by infusing sloe fruits from the blackthorn shrub with aromatic spices and herbs. The focus is on extracting the most fruit flavor possible, achieved through a traditional maceration process lasting four months. This results in a cherry red hue with violet undertones, intense color, and brightness. The aroma is reminiscent of red fruits with a hint of anise. The taste is well-balanced, dense, sweet, and velvety.
